

THE KENNEDYS' COAT OF ARMS-SOLUTION

There are two parts to this location puzzle—the Tents logic grid and the letter grid fill in. As indicated by the mentions of flowers, solvers must travel to the James P. Kelleher Rose Garden to find the names of the roses hinted by the clues! Other solvers can work on the Tents logic puzzle, which is completed below:

					1
					2
					1
					0
					2
2	1	1	0	2

The number after each flowery clue tells you which letter to take from that rose's name for the grid:

Following the instructions will reveal the following grid of letters:

A	W	U	P	H
I	C	G	N	E
O	K	X	T	Z
S	Y	F	V	R
Q	L	J	M	D

Mapping the solved Tents grid over the solved letters grid and reading the spots where flowers can be found reveals the answer: AGE OLD! (Fun fact: did you notice that one letter is missing from the 5 x 5 grid? It's "B"--because you already know where the bees are!). :D
